Maternity Services in Dudley

There are plenty of reasons to get involved in your local Maternity Voices Partnership, attend this event and you will receive;

- A really warm welcome, laughter and fun!
- A market place of maternity and early years services, so you can find out more about what's available for you and your little one.
- Share your experiences of maternity and early year's services so that we can make them the best they can be for you and your family.
- Meet other parents and little ones over hot drinks, juice and snacks galore!
- There is plenty for you and your little ones to do, bouncy castles, story time, face painting, baby massage and lots more...
